Nagpur's history can be traced back to the 8th century BC and was established by the Gond Prince Bakht Buland in the early 18th century and was once the seat of power of the Bhonsle rulers and capital of former central provinces. Nagpur is the major trade center for Oranges, so called as "Orange City". The city's location is marked by "Zero Mile" marker indicating the geographical center of India. Due to its proximity to several tiger reserves like Tadoba, Pench, Gorewada, it is also called as the "Tiger Capital" of India. Nagpur is the "winter capital" of Maharashtra hosting the annual winter session of Maharashtra State assembly.

Diksha Bhoomi, Koradi Temple, Ramtek Gad temple, Swaminarayan Temple and mainly the Saoji food and Tarri poha are the major attractions in Nagpur city.

Eagerly awaiting your enthusiastic participation and sole contributions.

Truly Your's
